

Strategic Plan for the Centennial Valley
Historical Association and
The Nici Self Historical Museum

Mission Statement Centennial Valley Historical Association

The CVHA will strive to preserve, interpret, and celebrate the natural, cultural, and developmental history of the Centennial Valley and its people

Values Statement Centennial Valley Historical Association

Collection

Preservation of existing exhibits through storage and use of technology
Expansion as opportunities arise
Creation of a resource from our repository

Community

Involvement with the Centennial School and other Centennial Organizations
Recruitment, training, and recognition of volunteers Collaboration with other museums and resources in the region

Finance

Preservation of Jane Houston Memorial Fund for museum future
Growth, continuation of membership dues, donations, and grants

Vision Statement

Centennial Valley Historical Association

- Serve as a cultural, historical, and educational resource
- Partner and collaborate with other museums in Wyoming and Colorado
- Become a destination in the Wyoming/Colorado Rocky Mountain Region